To Vote Is Every Citizen's Duty
Hard to Scare Job-Holders Now

I read in the El Dorado News an editorial complaint because while Union county has more than 8,000 poll tax receipts only 2,100 persons actually voted in the preferential primary. Our own record here in Hempstead county isn't much better.

American Faces Assault Charge in England

Somewhere in Britain, Aug. 10—Private Travis P. Hammond, 25, of Texas, the first American soldier of the second A.E.F. to be tried by general court martial in Britain, pleaded innocent today to a charge of assaulting a 16-year-old English girl.

It convicted he is liable to a death sentence or life imprisonment as a violator of the 92d article of war under which it is charged that Hammond "forcibly and feloniously against her will did have carnal knowledge" of the girl on July 17.

Smartly dressed, the tall, dark-haired shop girl whose name was not disclosed, appeared before the court to testify against Hammond. She said she met him in a Y.M.C.A. canteen where she was a volunteer worker, accompanied him to two pubs where they drank beer and wine, then went with him and another soldier and girl to an air raid shelter.

She said that Hammond kissed her and that when the other couple left she suggested leaving, too. Instead, she testified, Hammond picked her up.

"I protested," the girl told the court. "I fought him and struck him and kicked him," but he put his hand over my mouth."

His trial was opened to the public although U. S. headquarters had announced earlier it would be conducted in private at the request of the girl's parents.

The court convened four days after Ki George had assented to an act of parliament placing all U. S. soldiers in Britain under jurisdiction of their own courts.

Col. Milton M. Towner, an Air Force officer, is presiding over the one-man court which, with two exceptions is made up of Air Force officers.

Capt. Lester Pritchard, of Mississippi, Hammond's counsel, objected to the description of the charge as "rape."

The first witness, Private E. Boutwell of the Air Force, related how he and Hammond on the evening of July 17 drank several bottles of beer and went to a Y.M.C.A. canteen where they made dates with some girls.

Army headquarters announced that administration of United States military justice in the European theater would be under the charge of Brig. Gen. Lawrence Hendrick, a native of Indiana who took a law degree at the University of Missouri and was states attorney of South Dakota before 1917.

Admirals said that persons convicted by American army courts in the European theater will be imprisoned in places of detention maintained by the United States army but that those who must serve more than five years will be sent back to the United States.

"Death sentences, if they are imposed, will be carried out in the theater of operations by hanging or shooting," the announcement said.

Upon conclusion of the case the court will consider a charge of manslaughter against another private involved in an automobile accident. The public will be admitted to this hearing.

The rape case attracted considerable attention among the British press and public because of what was considered here to be "peculiarities" in American court procedure and the severity of the sentence for this offense—death or imprisonment.

Hempstead has a total of 5,454 poll tax receipts, but the official canvass shows only 2,907 persons actually used them on July 28.

In these days when we find ourselves at war for the very principles of democracy the least we can do to keep faith with ourselves is to exercise that right of a free citizen which is the cornerstone of an American's belief.

No matter how you plan to mark your ballot, do your bit this Tuesday and go to the polls.

Hempstead never has had the reputation of being a machine county, factional strength pretty well dividing the vote—and regardless what efforts are put forth to turn the opinions of public employees into a belief Tuesday's election will show people voting their private convictions.

For the business of "putting pressure" on public employees is not as easy today as it was yesterday.

But today anybody can get a job—anywhere—and at more money than he is now drawing.

I imagine that if any great degree of "pressure" is put on public employees in this election there will be a general revolt. For $100 and $125 a month employees don't have to take orders from anyone. They can quit and make more money anywhere else.

Every private employer like myself must feel that telling employees, private or public, how they must vote in an election is simply a bluff following the tradition of past elections, but an entirely empty tradition today, when there are more jobs than there are people.

Workers Leave Jobs in India As Drive Against British Gains Momentum

Bombay, Aug. 10 —(P)—Soldiers and police, fighting to control widespread rioting on the second day of Mohandas K. Gandhi's campaign to end the British rule in India, have fired upon crowds in Bombay ten times yesterday and today as strikes and disturbances spread throughout the country.

Bloodshed ushered in Gandhi's "non violent" civil disobedience campaign yesterday when the police were forced to fire six times.

A Bombay government communiqué tonight said casualties on Sunday totaled eight killed and 159 wounded, but said it had no tally of today's casualties in clashes in which demonstrators stoned trains and automobiles, and burned government grain ships. Strikes closed some factories and schools.

Bombay, Aug. 10 —(P)—The All-India Congress party's campaign of civil disobedience gained momentum today as workers left their jobs in 18 mills and rioting flared anew in Bombay, where the police fired into a large and turbulent crowd which refused to disperse.

Violent disorders broke out in various parts of the city, with demonstrators stoning suburban trains in one area and burning a government grain shop in another.

Eleven were sent to the hospital with bullet wounds suffered when police fired twice into groups in the Dandur district of Bombay, in Ponda police fired on a crowd, mostly of students, near Parsurambhai college, and 14 were removed to hospital. Schools and colleges there were closed. Goondas, the Hindu name for hoodlums, threw bottles through windows.

The work stoppages in some Bombay mills were in response to Mohandas K. Gandhi's "do or die" call for a "complete deadlock" by strikes and all other non-violent means.

As the campaign entered its second day amid shootings, showers of bottles and shouts of demonstrators, there were portents of even greater trouble ahead.

Bands of Hindus stoned some Moslem shops in the "trouble area" of south Central Bombay. Police have the greatest fear of repetition of the communal Moslem-Hindu riots which have followed previous civil disobedience campaigns.

Throughout the city troops were stationed in groups ranging from a dozen soldiers to a full platoon. They evidently were being shown largely for moral effect, however, for they were not participating with the police in breaking up disturbances. But they carried their rifles.

The curfew from 7 p. m. to daylight plus rain kept the city quiet last night, but the mid-morning renewal of the disturbances.

In a two-hour drive through the troubled area my car was shot at several times. Roadside threw bottles, pots, rocks and anything else could hastily seize from stands of nearby shops.

The windows of the auto oblige were smashed and I was showered with glass fragments. The car was dented in half a dozen places but received only a few stinging pellets from the broken glass.

One Indian, detecting that I was an American, shouted to the crowd to stop, but he could not make himself heard.

The police finally managed to force the car through the crowd and I escaped by racing down side streets amid catcalls, shouting and

Russian Defense Appears Broken Before Mairkop

By EDDY GILMORE

Moscow, Aug. 10 —(P)—Driven back by relentless, hard thrusts of German motorized troops and Alpinists, Red Army defenses before the oil fields of Mairkop and in spurs of the Caucasian foothills appeared to be cracking today.

Front line dispatches telling of tremendous explosions roaring over a broad area seemed to indicate the Russians were carrying out with ruthless abandon the scorched earth policy in the first oil regions the Germans have been able to penetrate in their Caucasian thrust.

Nazis Capture Pyatigorsk
Berlin (From German Broadcasts), Aug. 10 —(P)—The German High Command reported today the capture of Pyatigorsk, in the Caucasus foothills 170 miles southeast of Mairkop.

The communiqué said fast-moving Nazi units captured this town near the Rostov-Caspian railway after battling through tropical heat to storm and occupy Mairkop, center of the important oil area at the approaches to the Caucasus, and Krasnodar, armaments producing city 45 miles farther to the northwest.

The occupation of Mairkop and Krasnodar was announced over the weekend.

On the Stalingrad front the high command said that the Russians were making desperate resistance but that "their counter attacks failed after bitter fighting."

"In the great Don elbow a strong enemy army west of Kalach has been encircled," it added. "Repeated enemy attacks to break out of the trap and supply land ships were reported on the North Caucasian coast and a 4,000-ton merchant ship was reported sunk in the harbor of Tuapse."

Admit Losses But Declare Japs Hard Hit

By JAMES M. LONG
Associated Press War Editor

United States forces have landed in the Solomon Islands and they intend to stay, the Navy announced late today on the fourth day of the Allied first offensive in the Pacific war.

Admiral Erns J. King announced in Washington that heavy fighting was continuing, apparently by air and sea as well as in the land counterinvasion sectors of the southeastern Solomons.

He disclosed also that at least one U.S. cruiser had been sunk and four other warships and a transport damaged, but he announced that Japanese surface units and many planes had been put out of action.

By C. YATES MC DANIEL
Gen. MacArthur's Headquarters, Australia, Aug. 10 —(P)—Powerful bomber formations of the Allied Southwest Pacific command rained sledgehammer blows on enemy bases in the New Guinea-New Britain area, it was reported today, as air and sea forces locked in battle with the Japanese for the mountainous Solomon Islands and their strategic waters.

Official reports from the Allied headquarters were meager and extremely cautious at the end of the fourth day of the first United Nations attempt to wrest the initiative from the Japanese in the southwest Pacific.

But observers minimized the accuracy of Tokyo broadcast claims to have sunk or damaged a large number of United States aircraft carriers, warships and transports.

They also emphatically questioned Tokyo radio assertions that their Solomon island defenders had incurred the loss of only seven planes and damage to two cruisers in the first day and night.

While eagerly awaiting news of the outcome of the struggle for jungle-covered islands under the equatorial sky 600 miles distant from this continent, Australian headquarters were heartened by reports from advanced bases describing the vigor with which day and night air attacks were being pressed home against the bases upon which the Japanese depend for reinforcements.

Rabaul in New Britain, a crossroads for Japanese forces arriving from their mandated islands and fanning out to the Southwest Pacific, Gasmata on the south coast of New Britain and Lae and Salamau on the northeast coast of New Guinea were bearing the full brunt of this aerial onslaught.

A roaring air battle took place over Rabaul in one of these attacks August 8 when 20 Zeros rose to ward off big four- and five-engine flying fortresses which dropped low to blast the airfield with 2,000-pound and numerous 100-pound explosives.

Seven of the fighters were shot down, and the raiders believed that many of the others crashed when they attempted to land on the bomb-riddled runways.

Latest word on the continuing action in the Solomons, while scant, indicated the initiative remained in the hands of the American fleet and other Allied forces which had joined the battle Friday.

This information was relayed from Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, late yesterday by Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, U. S. Pacific Naval Commander. He gave no details as to the scope of the area under attack or the extent of the operations but all signs were that the drive might be developing into a major offensive operation.

Admiral Nimitz said the attack, on the Tulagi area in the southeast part of the Solomons, 600 miles off northeastern Australia, was being pressed by sea and air against Japanese land-based planes and garrisons and that "the operations are progressing favorably despite

LUCKY PENNY

By GLORIA KAYE

Copyright, 1942
NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: Wealthy Penny Kirk has returned from Paris to "breakover" herself in Kirk town, location of the great steel mill she has inherited. The morning after her arrival she sets out, incognito, to tour the town. Hot and tired, she drops in at a restaurant, is mistaken for a job applicant, and hired as a waitress. Five well-dressed men enter the restaurant, and in a moment a fight starts.

PENNY MEETS THE EDITOR

CHAPTER III

WITHOUT warning, a steel worker who had just come in walked over to the table where the well-dressed quintet was seated and lifted one of the men from his seat. He struck furiously, before the unwary group could come to its senses. Methodically, like a machine, he hammered first at one and then at another of the men.

Then they were all on their feet. Slugging with animal ferocity, they ignored tables and chairs in the end of the restaurant to the other. Penny stepped aside just in time as his table was overturned, the spaghetti spilling onto the floor in a tangled mess. Out of the corner of her eye she saw Pietro lurch from his kitchen screaming epithets in a tongue she couldn't understand and waving a meat cleaver high over his head. The men paid no attention to him. In a whirlwind of fists—the black-shirted steel worker seemed to be spinning like a top, no match for the men he had attacked. Often his failing punches reached their mark, but now he was weakening.

Then, once more from nowhere, came that familiar two-edged figure, the broad shoulders Penny recognized. She wondered what Jim Vickers would do.

For a long moment, he hesitated. Then, taking in the situation with a sharp, thoughtful glance, he plunged into the fight with a thorough fierceness that thrilled Penny in a strange way she had no time to analyze.

Jim Vickers was a powerhouse in action. He grappled with two of the sleek-haired men and tossed them halfway across the room as if they were pebbles. Pietro, still shouting imprecations that no one could understand, returned to the fray with a more practical weapon, a skillet which he bounced with marked success off the head of another member of the embattled quintet.

As quickly as the fight had begun it ended. Jim restrained the irate Pietro and the scowling steel worker by grasping their arms firmly in his strong hands. The five who had been beaten brushed dirt from their trousers and glared in impatient fury at their attacker, then picked up their crushed hats, no longer white. "You haven't heard the end of this, Vickers," one of the men said evenly, grimly. "We'll get you yet!" Bitter anger was written on their bruised faces as they stalked out.

MIDGE and Pietro, suddenly as calm as though this were an everyday occurrence, surveyed the damage.

"That was the best day's entertainment I've had in a year," said Midge. "I'd give a week's salary to see you do it over again."

"Sit down and have a cup of coffee," Pietro invited. "They've had it coming to them for a long time. Here, Penny. Take care of the boys. Don't worry about the tables. We'll fix them."

Both Jim and the steel worker nursed sore knuckles as Penny served them with hands that still shook.

"What's the story, Bill?" Jim asked quietly. Bill took a long drag on his cigaret before he answered.

"You've probably heard it a hundred times. Jim. My brother lost his pay again this week. Castro's men cleaned him good, as proper. He didn't have enough money left for bus fare. I'm going to get those guys," Bill threatened, clenching his fist. "If they don't let my kid brother alone, I'll kill them!"

"How did it happen, Bill?" Jim's voice was soothing. "The same old racket," Bill said, as if weary of repeating it. "Castro's stooges were at the mill gate, as usual, on pay day. The kid brother is a good lad. He means well. But—well, like the other fellows, he likes a good time. They roped him into a crooked dice game. He had a few drinks with the boys. When they finished, his pay was gone."

"Sure it was the Castro gang?" asked Jim.

"Sure," said Bill. "It's always the Castro gang! They run this town. You know that, Jim."

"I know. You'd better lie low for a while," Jim cautioned. "They're a tough bunch. Don't worry about that outfit. We'll clean them out of Kirktown."

"Thanks, Jim," said Bill. "I can take care of myself. If they know what's good for them, they'd better stay away from me. My brother has the sweetest wife and kid that ever lived. I'm not going to stand by and see his life messed up."

Penny sensed, somehow, that this was the longest speech Bill had ever made. With set lips and bitter eyes, he walked out.

Jim Vickers pulled a sheet of paper from an inner pocket, and made a few notes. Deftly, Midge poured another steaming cup of coffee.

"By the way, Jim," she said, "here's an item for your paper. Meet Penny Kellogg, our new disher-outer of food fit for a king. Penny, meet Jim Vickers, editor, publisher and janitor of the Kirktown Courier."

PENNY felt an unaccustomed blush flooding her cheeks. She managed a smile and a stammer. "Glad to know you, Penny," Jim said. "I'm sorry our little game spoiled your lunch. We don't always play so rough."

"I thought you did all right," Penny approved, inwardly thankful that he did not recognize her. "It's good to know you, Penny," Jim said. "I was getting to come to Bill's rescue. He was getting the worst of it, you know."

"Lots of good fellows like Jim are getting the worst of it," Jim said soberly. "The showdown is coming soon." Jim went on to explain that on pay day Castro's thugs worked the mill gates. "They're a tricky bunch. The men have money, burning a hole in their pockets. Castro provides the temptation and the suckers lose their pay."

"I can't understand that," said Penny. "Don't the men know they're being tricked?"

"It's hard to explain, Penny," Jim said. "But the hunger for excitement and fun is just as gnawing, sometimes, as the hunger for food. Castro runs every place in town. The men wonder into one of his spots just to have something different to do. Before they realize it they've had too much to drink. If they don't gamble their pay away on Castro's crooked games, they're rolled for their money."

He looked up at Penny, studied the serious expression on her face, and laughed suddenly.

"Gosh, Penny. It isn't as bad as all that," he said. "Let's see you smile again. I like your dimples." Involuntarily, Penny complied.

"You're a stranger here and it's my civic duty to show you the sights," Jim volunteered. "How about a guided tour of Kirktown?" Penny hesitated. Jim's invitation was tempting, but dangerous to the plan she had been outlining in her mind. Penny Kellogg in a waitress' uniform might mean nothing to Jim. Would he recognize her as the Penny Kirk he had known in Paris if he spent an afternoon with her?

"Come on," he urged. "I'm harmless."

"Well—" Penny wanted to go, admitting to herself that she'd been a little lonely. Maybe it was worth a chance.

American Plan Surprise Japs

Chungking, Aug. 10.—(P)—American sky dragons caught the Japanese base at Haiphong in puppetized French Indo-China by complete surprise Sunday and in a concentration on a 4,000 ton steamer and started a large oil fire on the docks, Lieut. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell said in a communique today.

"All bombs landed in the target area," communique No. 33 said. "After the bombers released their bombs, escorting pursuit planes bombed and machinegunned the dock area. The complete lack of hostile opposition indicates the enemy was taken at complete surprise."

No U. S. losses were suffered. It was the first raid on Haiphong by raiders based in China.

Haiphong has been used by the Japanese as a port of entry into the French Colony since September, 1940, when Vichy made its first accord with Tokyo. It is located in the north, on the Gulf of Tonkin.

The main land fighting was around the central Kiangsi city of Linchuan which the Chinese high command said was completely surrounded. Chinese troops were said to be in some of the suburbs. Some points changed hands as many as ten times, a Chinese communique said.

Scrap Rally Week Highway Contract

Little Rock, Aug. 10.—(P)—The week of Aug. 24-29 was designated Arkansas Scrap Rally week by Governor Adkins today in a proclamation urging cooperation in the nationwide scrap collection camp.

Poppies have been planted in Germany for the oil yielded by the seeds.

Amendment to Bill Rejected

Washington, Aug. 10.—(P)—The Senate Finance Committee rejected today a proposed amendment to the new revenue bill which would have required the payment of taxes by the recipient on all earned income in the eight community property states.

The action came on a vote of 11 to 4.

"That means that the community property states can rest at ease for at least another year," a newsman asked Chairman George (D-A.)

"That means they can rest at ease," responded George.

He estimated that inclusion of the provision would have added approximately $85,000,000 in new revenue, based upon the income tax rates set by the House.

Committee members said that the effect of preventing a man from dividing his earned income with his wife for tax purposes, thus higher bracket.

Eight states have community tax laws—Texas, California, Louisiana, Arizona, New Mexico, Nevada, Idaho, and Washington.

The committee decided to close its open hearings on the revenue bill this week, probably on Thursday.

George said it then would take a week's recess, and begin its executive deliberations two weeks from today.

Former Senator T. P. Gore of Oklahoma, who sponsored the principle in 1918 as a member of the finance committee, urged the group

Asserts U. S. Didn't Prove Spies Guilty

New York, Aug. 10.—(P)—In its first comment on the execution of six Nazi saboteurs in the United States, the German radio said today that by its action the United States "forfeited the right of protesting against the condemnation of saboteurs in the territory occupied by the German army."

The broadcast, heard by CBS, added, without giving any source of its unsupported information, that the United States military authorities failed to prove that the six were guilty.

Fifth Column Markers Found

Mitchel Field, N. Y., Aug. 10.—Ground markers emblazoned by rural fifth columnists with plows and other farm implements to guide enemy bombers to vital objectives have been discovered by army air observers and destroyed.

Danger to large eastern airports and plane factories to which the markers pointed thus has been averted, Col. Dache M. Reeves, commanding the first ground air support unit of the first air force, said in making the disclosure yesterday.

"Proper action" was taken by army intelligence officers and the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Colonel Dache said, without announcing the fate of those who fashioned the ingenious markers visible only from the air.

One of the cleverest markers, according to the air force announcement, was an arrow pointing directly at eastern air base and made by clearing a section of earth in the shape of a "V" at the head of a natural footpath.

In another photograph, a marmoth arrow, created by a plow was aimed directly at a nearby airplane factory. A huge field had been furrowed except for an arrow-shaped portion of untouched land remaining dark and clearly visible against the lighter plowage part.

Still another air view showed dozens of empty grain sacks ostensibly left carelessly in an open field but actually arranged carefully in a pattern forming an enormous figure "9", with the tail of the "9" a perfect guide pointing at a plane factory.

There's A Reason Why CHARLES MEHAFFY

Led In The
First Primary

Qualifications
Are The Only Issue

Qualifications—that's the reason why Charles Mehaffy led by such a substantial margin in the first primary. Arkansas voters demand that their Supreme Court Justices be chosen by a careful appraisal of the integrity, experience, training and temperament of the candidates. Charles Mehaffy met this test in the first primary when Arkansas voters indicated that he possessed the qualifications they expect a Judge to have. This is the reason that thousands of new supporters are pledging Charles Mehaffy their vote. They know that qualifications are the only issue, and that Charles Mehaffy measures up to their standards.

Twelve Hurlers Used by Cubs Against Reds

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR
Associated Press Sports Writer
Most baseball teams will go to great lengths to win their games but few of them have had to go as far as the Chicago Cubs, who needed 18 hurlers yesterday to trip the Cincinnati Reds in the opener of a doubleheader.

Twelve pitchers, the most ever used in a major league game, paraded to the mound in the struggle, longest in the majors this season and the seventh extra-inning affair for these two clubs in 13 meetings.

Three times the Cubs figures they had it in the bag, but each time the Reds tied it up. Finally Hiram Bithorn, last of six Chicago hurlers, blanked the Reds for six straight innings and the Cubs sandwiched the 18th inning blows of Stan Hack and Dom Dilessandro between a walk and an outfield fly for two runs and a 10-8 decision.

The game itself lasted five hours and was interrupted for another hour by weather in the 13th frame. That left only an hour of daylight for the second game, which the Reds won, 2-1, in four and a half innings, with Bithorn the starting and losing hurler.

A total of 37 players participated in the first game—three short of the record held by the Pittsburgh Pirates and Boston Braves. The previous record of 11 pitchers in a single game was set Sept. 6, 1924, when the Philadelphia Phillies used six against the New York Giants, who used five. Since then, four games played in the National League and three in the American League have employed that many flingers.

Some batters appeared at the plate 10 times, with the losers leading in hits, 20 to 19. Hack, who celebrates his 10th anniversary in the majors tomorrow, led the Cub assault with five blows in five official times at bat. Johnny Vander Meer pitched four-hit ball for Cincinnati in the second game.

Meanwhile, the St. Louis Cardinals squeezed past the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-3, and 2-1, to trim Brooklyn's lead to eight lengths. The Dodgers bumped into a postponement at Boston.

hitting for the Red Birds, driving in the winning marker in the nightcap and setting the stage for the tie-breaking tally in the curtain-raiser, each time with a double.

At Philadelphia, the Giants tripped the Phils, 3-2, in the first game when Mel Ott laid down a 10th inning bunt with the bases loaded, but Bill McGee made things easier in the second game, pitching a five-hit shutout as the Giants won 2-0. Buster Maynard clouted a home run and made 10 put outs, two shy of the major league record.

In the American League, the New York Yankees increased their lead to a dozen games and the Boston Red Sox moved into second place, although neither team lifted a bat.

It all came about when the Chicago White Sox clipped the Cleveland Indians, 11-1 and 3-2, stretching their winning streak to eight games and dropping the tribe half a game behind the Red Sox. Ted Lyons pitched four-hit ball in the opener for his 10th win this year and his seventh in a row.

Bob Kennedy, who was sworn in to the Naval Air Corps between games, won the nightcap by singling the winning run across in the ninth.

The Detroit Tigers had the help of 11 St. Louis errors as they downed the Browns, 9-3 and 3-1.

The doubleheaders between the Yanks and Philadelphia Athletics and the Red Sox and Washington Senators were postponed until today.

REFERRED ACT NO. 135 OF 1941
GENERAL ASSEMBLY
INITIATED BY PETITION

AN ACT TO PROHIBIT THE UNAUTHORIZED PRACTICE OF LAW OR THE HOLDING OUT TO PRACTICE LAW BY ANY PERSON, FIRM OR CORPORATION OTHER THAN A LICENSED ATTORNEY; TO PROVIDE PENALTIES AND REMEDIES FOR THE VIOLATION OF THIS ACT; AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

The following is a full and correct copy of the above numbered and entitled act upon which this referendum is ordered.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas:

Section 1. No person other than a natural person duly licensed and admitted to practice law under the laws of this State and rules and regulations prescribed by the Supreme Court of this State shall do any act or thing which constitutes the practice of law, and the doing of any of the following acts by any person, firm or corporation, whether therefor is hereby defined as an act constituting the practice of law:

"(a) In a representative capacity, the appearance as an advocate, or the drawing of wills, trust agreements and the performance of any act in connection with proceedings, pending or prospective, before the Arkansas Workmen's Compensation Commission, Corporation Commission and The Department of Public Utilities, provided, however, that any person authorized to practice before the Interstate Commerce Commission of the United States shall be permitted to appear and practice before the Corporation Commission and Department of Public Utilities upon rate matters.

"(b) The advising with another or for another as to legal rights, or liabilities or as to the law, its construction, operation or effect, provided, however, that nothing in this Act shall apply to certified Public Accountants who do not practice law as defined herein.

"(c) Provided nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit any person from attempting to attend to or care for his own business claims, or demands, but this exception as to the person's own business shall not permit any person other than a licensed attorney to engage in the practice of law, nor shall a person when acting in a representative capacity, as executor, administrator, or guardian be regarded as engaging in his own business affairs within this exception unless in matters where his personal rights as representative are concerned. Provided further, no corporation shall appear in any court, of record, or not of record, in this State, even on its own business, other than by a licensed Attorney.

"(d) Provided further, that no corporation, bank, trust company, investment company or adjusting company shall be permitted to solicit in any manner or by any method the handling or administering of estates in an advisory or representative capacity unless there shall appear in and upon said solicitation the words "In connection with your attorney." Solicitation as used herein shall mean by mail, advertisement in newspapers, listing in law lists, commercial collection lists, bank journals, bank or trust company lists, chamber of commerce lists, private letterheads, cards or any methods herein enumerated.

"(e) This section shall apply to Circuit Clerks, County and Probate and Chancery Clerks but shall not apply to Abstractors in case the papers, deeds, mortgages and/or other papers affecting the title to real estate, personal property and claims prepared for another are a part of Abstracts of title, and where such papers are not prepared for execution for another person, firm or corporation.

"(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to claim agents or adjusters acting in an individual capacity or when employed by a company in relation to which their services are essential. And provided such agents or adjusters comply with sub-section "g" herein.

"(g) Nothing in this Section shall be construed to apply to insurance agents duly licensed under the laws of this State in the solicitation, writing, binding or explanation of contracts of insurance workmen's compensation policies, surety bonds or other instruments common to the insurance business.

"Section 2. Any person who cooperates with or in any manner aids or abets another person, firm or corporation in the violation of this act shall be subject to the penalties and remedies provided herein regardless of whether or not such person who aids, abets or assists another person, firm or corporation is a licensed attorney.

"Section 3. It is hereby declared to be the intent of this Act to be in aid of and subordinate to the right of the Supreme Court of Arkansas to regulate and define the practice of law and prevent and prohibit the unauthorized or unlawful practice thereof by appropriate rules, orders and penalties.

"Section 4. It shall be the duty of each and every Circuit Judge, Chancellor, Prosecuting Attorney and members of the Arkansas Bar licensed under and pursuant to rules and regulations heretofore prescribed by the Supreme Court to report each, every and all violations and infractions of any of the provisions of this Act to the Clerk of the Supreme Court and to furnish affidavits, statements, names and address of witnesses, and all other pertinent information relating to such violation or infraction. The Supreme Court shall refer such matter to the Bar Rules Committee for such action as in now consistent with Rules, Regulations and orders now made and provided. All actions instituted by said Bar Rules Committee against persons, firms and corporations for violations or infractions of any of the provisions of this Act shall be filed in the Circuit Courts of this State having jurisdiction now conferred by law. Any person, firm or corporation found guilty of violating any of the provisions of this Act shall upon conviction be fined not less than ($100.00), nor more than ($500.00). The right to appeal to the Supreme Court being herein expressly reserved and extended.

"Section 5. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed and this Act shall be in force from and after its passage" be referred to the people of said State, to the end that the same may be approved or rejected by the vote of the legal voters of the State, at the biennial regular general election to be held on the 3rd day of November, 1942; and each of us for himself says: I am a qualified elector of the state of Arkansas and my residence, postoffice and voting precinct are correctly written after my name.

Approved: March 17, 1941.
Petition for referendum filed in this office on the 9th day of June, 1942.

Witness my hand and seal of office on this the 30th day of July, 1942.

HOLT WILL WIN AGAIN

THE PEOPLE HAVE

FOR THEIR U. S. SENATOR

JACK HOLT is fully experienced in legislative procedure, having drafted and passed on much of this state's major legislation in recent years.

JACK HOLT has been Attorney for the People of Arkansas for the past six years. He has represented ALL of the people of the state. He advocated all-out preparedness long before Pearl Harbor.

The Voice of the People Is Louder Than the Cry of Disgruntled Politicians

IN the dying moments of John McClellan's second unsuccessful campaign for United States Senator, the people of Arkansas are beginning to see what's really behind McClellan's candidacy. They are beginning to see the array of politicians aligned with John McClellan. They are beginning to see the "me-too" boys; the "has-beens"; the "want-to-be's" and all the others.

The hungry group of discredited politicians and patronage seekers now associated with Mr. McClellan have never been found supporting Mr. Holt — and they never will. Jack Holt is not their kind. He couldn't possibly satisfy the demands of these political leeches and still be true to his obligations to the people. So they just naturally flock where the pickings are best. The only support Jack Holt has ever had has come from the people and they are the ones from whom he will draw his support now.

And having seen all this, the people have decided that if their interests are to come first — if they are to be served before the politicians — their only hope is JACK HOLT. They know that Jack Holt has been a loyal public servant. They know Jack Holt has represented the PEOPLE — not the politicians. They know that as their next United States Senator, Jack Holt will continue to represent the people — ALL OF THE PEOPLE of Arkansas.

Mrs. Caraway's endorsement of John McClellan has provided Arkansas its biggest political chuckle in many years. Too many people remember the campaign of just four years ago when McClellan bombarded Mrs. Caraway from every stump in the state and Mrs. Caraway gave him like measure. The people realize that Mrs. Caraway cannot be serious when she endorses the man she so vigorously condemned just four years ago.

Don't Let Phoney Endorsements Pull the Wool Over Your Eyes!

JACK HOLT still has the endorsement of the People of Arkansas — and the People of Arkansas still are the ones who elect our public officials.

Jack Holt's friends know no sections, classes or groups. They come from every walk of life in every part of Arkansas. They know Jack Holt and know his record is good. They know they can DEPEND upon Jack Holt to work for and fight for the things that will protect their interests.

They know Jack Holt will stand for service to the people; not just service to the politicians.

They Know that on Tuesday They Will Elect--

State Oil Production Slightly Increased

El Dorado, Aug. 10 —(P)—Average daily production of crude oil and condensate by Arkansas fields increased 2,020 barrels from May to June, the oil and gas commission reported. June average was 13,825 compared with 11,809 in May.

Other average daily increases in petroleum activity included:

Gas production at nine Arkansas gas plants, 5,136,000 cubic feet; crude oil processing by the seven refineries, 1,863 barrels; sour gas from the oil and condensate fields, 1,453,000 cubic feet.

The nine gasoline plants produced 2,235 barrels of gasoline, 463 barrels of butane and 11 barrels of condensate daily, the report said.

Grit, fifth, principal, Mrs. J. W. Teeter, Mrs. Hartwell Gresson, Miss Carol Scott, Mrs. C. G. Gordon Jr., and Mrs. Charles Thomas to replace Miss Helen Scott, resigned.

Junior High School—Mrs. Tula Elliott, principal, Mrs. Roy Stainton, Miss Winnie Duke, Mrs. Ruby Tompkins to replace Miss Irene Hamby, resigned, Miss Rachel Black to replace Mrs. T. M. Honea.

fields decreased 2,813,000 cubic feet daily.

Washington, Aug. 10 —(P)—The WPB has authorized Smackover oil field operators in southern Arkansas to plug back wells to shallower producing zones without obtaining well - by - well authority.

Operators said the plugging back was necessary because water now encountered in many of the lower zones made it uneconomical to operate.

The new authority will reduce expense and save time, the government order said.

Legal Notice

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

Proposed by the General Assembly and filed in the office of the Secretary of State on the 27th day of March, 1941.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND SENATE OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS, A MAJORITY OF BOTH HOUSES AGREEING THERETO: THAT THE FOLLOWING IS HEREBY PROPOSED AS AN AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS, AND THE SAME BEING SUBMITTED TO THE ELECTORS OF THE STATE FOR APPROVAL OR REJECTION AT THE NEXT GENERAL ELECTION FOR SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES, IF A MAJORITY OF THE ELECTORS VOTING THEREON ADOPT SUCH AMENDMENT, THE SAME SHALL BECOME A PART OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF ARKANSAS, TO-WIT:

Section 1. Whenever in any county where there is located a public hospital owned by such county or by any municipal corporation therein, whether such hospital be operated by such county or municipal corporation or by a benevolent association as the agent or lessee of such county or municipal corporation, one hundred or more electors of such county shall file a petition with the county judge asking that an annual tax on real and personal property in such county be levied for the purpose of maintaining, operating and supporting such hospital and shall specify a rate of taxation not exceeding one mill on the dollar of the assessed value of real and personal property in the county. The question as to whether such tax shall be levied shall be submitted to the qualified electors of such county at a general election. Such petition must be filed at least thirty days prior to the election at which it will be submitted to the voters. The county judge upon the filing of such petition shall notify the county board of election commissioners thereof and the county board of election commissioners shall cause the question to be placed upon the ballot in substantially the following form:

FOR a mill tax on real and personal property to be used for maintenance, operation and support of a public hospital.

AGAINST a Mill tax on real and personal property to be used for maintenance, operation and support of a public hospital.

Section 2. The election commissioners shall certify to the county judge the result of the vote and if a majority of the qualified electors voting on the question at such election vote in favor of the specified tax then it shall thereafter be continually levied and collected as other general taxes of such county are levied and collected. The result of the election shall be proclaimed by the county judge by publication for one insertion in some newspaper published and having a bona fide circulation in such county. The result so proclaimed shall be conclusive unless attacked in the courts within thirty days and after the election it shall not be competent to attack the result thereof on the ground that any signers of the petition were not qualified electors. The proceeds of any tax so voted shall upon the settlement of the collecting officer be paid by the treasurer of the county to the treasurer of such hospital to be used by such treasurer in the maintenance, operation and support of such institution, provided that any county where there may be more than one hospital qualified to receive the proceeds of such tax, the quorum court at its meeting for the purpose of adopting the county's budget, shall provide for the apportionment of the proceeds of said tax between the institutions so qualified according to the respective needs.

Section 3. Whenever one hundred or more electors of any county having a hospital tax in force shall file a petition with the county judge asking that such tax be raised, reduced or abolished, the question shall be submitted to the qualified electors at a general election. Such petition must be filed at least thirty days prior to the election at which it will be submitted to the voters. The ballots shall follow, as far as practicable, the form set out in Section 1 hereof, and the result shall be certified and proclaimed as provided in Section 2 hereof and shall be conclusive in like manner. The tax shall be lowered, raised or abolished as the case may be, according to the majority of qualified electors voting on the question at such election, provided, however, that it shall not be raised to more than one mill on the dollar. If lowered or raised the revised tax shall thereafter be continually levied and collected and the proceeds used in the manner and for the purposes provided in Section 2 hereof.

Section 4. This amendment shall be self executing and shall become a part of the constitution of the State of Arkansas when approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon at the next general election.

Witness my hand and Seal this 30th day of April, 1942.

C. G. HALL,
Secretary of State.

REVEILLE

This message is addressed to all men and women who served their country in World War I, and to the fathers and mothers, the sisters and brothers, the wives and all true friends of those who have served and are now serving under Old Glory.

John L. McClellan had a wife and child when he volunteered in 1917. He served his country well for 17 long months and did his part to help win the war — But, THE PEACE WAS LOST BY THE POLITICIANS AND INEXPERIENCED MEMBERS OF CONGRESS.

Let Us Be Sincere

Are we only giving "lip service" to our men who leave us by every train and boat? If we are really sincere let us not only buy bonds and ration sugar, LET'S GIVE THEM THE PROTECTION THEY WILL SURELY NEED AFTER THEIR TRIUMPHANT RETURN TO THE STATES—let's elect John McClellan, who has a son in the Commando service and a son-in-law in the Air Corps, to insure that protection.

A Real Soldier After the War

John L. McClellan was born and reared in South Arkansas and understands our problems. During the years that he was a member of Congress he was on the Rivers and Harbors Committee, he supported every piece of legislation for flood control and harnessing our rivers to develop cheap electricity, AND, HE WAS THE AUTHOR OF THE BILL THAT OBTAINED FOR US THE $5,000,000.00 UNMATCHED FEDERAL FUNDS FOR ARKANSAS ROADS.

WE NEED McCLELLAN AGAIN

With your help he will be there again to solve grave and serious questions that only men of his age, experience and training are qualified to deal with.

TO THE VOTERS OF HOPE:

The country people are asking you to support John L. Wilson for County Judge.

They need roads in their community and ask that you help them in this hour of need. The issue for Judge is plain: Private contracting against public service.

Don't be fooled by the sop that was handed you as rental. No one has a moral right to use public machinery for private use when the demand was so great on School Bus routes that children might get to and from school.

John L. Wilson is running for his 2nd Term according to the Supreme Court who twice decided in his favor.

Vote for Wilson and get your money's worth in Public Service.
